After receipt of the application and fee, the city will schedule a public hearing with the Planning Commission, within one month. Neighbors within 300 feet of your property will be notified of your request, intent and of the hearing.

If granted, the conditional use permit shall be on indefinite duration, non-transferrable but subject to revocation for violation of City Code or regulation, or failure to meet imposed conditions. Revocation will be only by majority vote of the River Heights City Council after written notice to the permit holder has been served and a hearing has been held.
